Kunci Jawaban Lks Ips Terpadu Kelas 8 Semester 1 Revisi 2021 / Buku Pr A: The two most important functions of the meta description are 1) to be the "breadcrumbs" that Google finds when it's "thinking" about your page (keywords and keyword phrases), and 2) to let the search engine know what your page is about. In other words: How it can show "breadcrumbs" to the user How to describe the content of the page. Search engines, like Google, are always looking for pages that are informative and help you to find what you're looking for. Breadcrumbs in this context help you to get straight to the point. A way to put it would be: How to search keywords and phrases How to get the keyword phrase you are looking for Now, in your case, I'm guessing that you are dealing with a specific form of content. How you're choosing to present your content is very important here and will drive how you're actually listed in search results. Your meta description is your chance to share with Google that your page is about something and you'll help people to understand what your page is about. It's a textual representation of your page, designed for Google and other search engines. It's the right place to explain
