You can view the whole thing here Listed in the order of appearance, the final four holes are: -15 = A cave with a small water hole in the back. You can view it entirely, but you can only enter it completely without losing a ball. -14 = The first hole, and one of the newer ones, built alongside a creek. You can't access the actual creek, but you can park at the tee and then play

Travel to the remote Kingdom of Lorraine, and unravel the origins of the tragic curse that threatens to destroy everything you hold dear. In the process, follow the princess Erinys' journey from an impulsive child to a wise, tempered ruler who will not only save the kingdom but also free it from the most dreadful evil. Tell your story in the space of a day. A world without end. Your story begins here, you will be free to choose your actions. Players will be free to make their own choices, to become the princess they want to be, and to do whatever they want while on a journey to help save the Kingdom. It's within your power to control the events, to set the narrative and shape the story that unfolds before your eyes and, ultimately, to make your own path. Can you break the curse that threatens to consume the kingdom? Features: Embark on a journey that takes you across the kingdom and eventually to the lands of the other kingdom, the Elmet Empire. The journey will take you through different locations and provide you with a wealth of missions to complete, all of which are tied to the main story of the game. You'll be able to choose to complete each mission or not, depending on your wishes and your own personal story. Missions: In the prologue, you will be able to complete eleven (or twelve) missions. Each of them will gradually take you closer to discovering the origins of the tragic curse that has befallen the Kingdom. Gameplay: 1. Choose your own protagonist and customize her with four (or five) traits - a name, special talents, flaws, and even a favourite food. 2. Create your companion characters by choosing the gender, class and special abilities of each one. 3. After you've both played the prologue through to the end, every conversation with a character will provide you with different dialog options - it's only up to you to decide which of those you choose to use. Every word spoken, from the large and important ones, to the smaller ones, will all have a meaning and a bearing on the story. 4. Every interaction with an NPC will have an effect on the game's world. Over the course of the day, you will be free to choose how to interact with everyone you meet: the conversations you have, the items you can collect or share, and the results of actions you can perform. 5. You can find a link to each game, a rating and brief description in the list below. So I started writing this post about a month ago, and it's still not finished. It's been extremely hard to focus on a topic when there are literally hundreds of games released each week. Eventually I started randomly picking games, rating and writing brief descriptions. I played so many great games this year it's hard to choose. I've been using AppAwards for quite some time now, so I tried to check my list through a different source to see if the games listed there are any where close to what I saw. It's by no means an

What's new:

THE RECIPE!!! This DELTAZEAL (1340.3 grams or about 4.24 lbs) is so nice and tender because it is cooked medium-rare. I put the wings on a wire rack after cooking for about 45 minutes so they wouldn't keep tumbling around and breaking apart. The sauce is spiced up with a jalapeno. 1. Reserve 6 cups of the reserved sauce in the refrigerator to be used for dipping the tortilla chips. 2. Chop the onions, green peppers and jalapeno into small pieces and combine in a mixing bowl with the garlic and cumin. Dump in some of the reserved sauce and toss well to combine. Drain the chicken and add to the bowl with the onions and spices. Season with salt and pepper. Mix well and let sit for 1/2 hour. 3. Remove the chicken mixture from the fridge and unwrap the bread for the chips. Slice each piece of bread into 18 or so triangles. (I used deli bread but any white bread or bun would work just as well.) 4. Put flour in a bowl and season with salt and pepper. Lightly coat the bread slices on both sides and deep fry the bread triangles, 2 slices at a time, in 2 separate batches of hot oil for about 3-4 minutes, turning occasionally, until golden brown. 5. As the bread fries, add the shredded cabbage to the hot oil and stir to coat. Fry for about 5 minutes, just until tender. 6. Drain on paper towels and sprinkle with a pinch of cumin. 7. Place 2 bread triangles on each plate. Top with lettuce, 2 slices of fried chicken and sprinkle with 1/2 cup shredded cheese. Top with jalapeno sauce. Set aside and rest 15 minutes before serving. The windows were all locked and we couldn't gain entrance. By then it was late and we had all but given up our quest for the last of the deli deli sandwiches that we had found so that someone else was more likely to score it. We headed over to the party instead and found the desserts. Have I mentioned my friend Jamie our fellow Best of Blogger for May, who celebrated the longest birthday of anyone I know of? Anyways, the party was good but not enough doughnuts and cake to make up for such a late lunch. I finally scored a few DELTAZEAL (1340

Monkey Gnomes is a rogue-lite roguelike role-playing game in which you must explore the mysterious flying island, throw pinecones into the well, manage your inventory and wear a series of new hats. Unlock all the beautiful items in the game: hats, armor, armor sets, weapons, armor sets and more! There are different types of weapons and defense equipment to unlock and improve with your rolls of the dice. An adventure awaits! Hurry up and throw the pinecone into the well! Game info Game instructions The flying island is suspended in the air. Pinecones fall all the time from the sky, and sometimes a good one will fall into the well. If you throw a pinecone into the well, it will disappear and a new one will appear in 24 hours. The flying island consists of a series of levels; at the end of each level you will have to finish collecting fruit and return to the well. You will start the game in the mountain area where you will hear the cry of wolves. From there you can choose to travel the flying island, go to the desert and village area. Each area has its own difficulties and obstacles. Your survival will depend on your ability to move quickly through the flying island, get the fruit and throw pinecones into the well. In case the game freezes, the current game can be saved and continued from the spot where the game has frozen, and can also be continued from the last save point. The game is being played by millions of players all over the world. Thanks to you it is possible to reach the top of the ratings. You can add your personal scores to the global leaderboard. The personal best score is highly appreciated. For your safety, we recommend that you obey the fences of the flying island, or hang over the walls of the well. If the game freezes, the current game can be saved and continued from the spot where the game has frozen, and can also be continued from the last save point. The leaderboard consists of three sections: The global leaderboard. The best players all over the world are being ranked based on their personal best score. The daily leaderboard. The best players all over the world are being ranked based on their daily best score. The monthly leaderboard. The best players all over the world are being ranked based on their monthly best score. Your score in the leaderboard is calculated by the
