As for those elements, first of all there is the ORRPG gameplay, in which we have features like stamina and Constitution like in Final Fantasy XV. The main reasons of the game's popularity are the sharp character models and animations and excellent graphics. The quests that can be completed as part of the story are easy to understand and they take you to the most interesting locations of the game world, which we can see from the screenshots. The game can be played in singleplayer mode for example, if we don't care about the story development and at the same time we want to experience the game only as an action RPG. If we want to enjoy the story part of the game, then we will have to invest time to unlock all the locked content, which is inevitable. This is a very fast game compared to the other ORRPGs and Final Fantasy XV. Much faster. There is no PVP component in the game, so if we don't want to face any PvP enemies we can avoid them in singleplayer mode. This is a huge plus. The game is very rich, it has many factions.
