To select, simply click on the tool you want to use and press down on your mouse to activate it. Click and drag your mouse to move the selection. Note: Once your selection has been created, the image editor will suggest your selection by color or by the shape of your selected pixels. Elements suggests the best way to select the area. The tools you need for most of your editing are covered in this guide.

To create the mask, you need to press down on the mouse for a couple of seconds. Once you have pressed down on the mouse, the ink color will turn dark gray and a red dot will appear on the mouse cursor. From there, simply move your mouse to the area you want to change. Use the Ink Sketch Tool to create a selection.

Nudge: Nudge is a tool that you use to edit the shape of your original photo. To use it, you need to press and hold the Nudge button and then move your mouse in a circular motion. Orlando Marigny, AFP | Machete (R) and a firearm (L) close to the Auchan Hypermarket in Toulouse A gunman with an arsenal of firearms and explosives killed four people including two police officers and a child during a terrifying nine-hour siege on a hypermarket in southeastern France. Advertising Read more The attack began just before 4 pm local time on Friday at the Auchan hypermarket in Carcassonne, south of Toulouse, and ended at around 4.30 am on Saturday with the arrested shooter dead and the suspect's three-year-old daughter unharmed. Paris prosecutor Remy Heitz said the man's "weapons arsenal included an AK-47 assault rifle and an explosive belt as well as a bomb-like object in his bag". The suspect, whose name has not been released, was arrested at the scene shortly after the attack and taken into custody. He was known to security services and was under investigation for radical jihadist activity, French Interior Minister Gerard Collomb said. "It is in the interest of the country that this act of terrorism is carried out and that those responsible are held to account," Collomb said. A 33-year-old employee of the hypermarket was killed in the attack, four others were injured, including two police officers and a three-year-old girl who was in the supermarket when the attack occurred. The attacker is believed to have wanted to target Christians, police said, but he was instead stopped by the police. The shooter's family and neighbours said that the man moved to Toulouse from the southeastern city of Montpellier a few months ago. Valentin Rondeau, the deputy mayor of Carcassonne, said the attack was "carried out deliberately". "We were in contact with the police. I don't know what happened. The attacker is dead," he told AFP. "I don't know what the attacker was carrying in his bag. We don't know anything about him," he added. The Minister said the states need some kind of law to control corruption and ensure proper punishment for such rackets. "I am very keen on the matter. Let it be appealed in the Supreme Court. For the central and state governments, if there are repeated offences then punishment must be given. "If the government's efforts are not enough, we can also approach the Supreme Court," he added.
